

ALAMO TROPHIES

The Alamo Trophy is a bronze plaque. It is a symbol of the significant contributions made to the nation's history and development by the rifle and superb marksmanship of frontiersmen like Davy Crockett and his fellow defenders in the famous battle which is the subject for the bronze. The trophy was first offered by the NRA in 1942 and is the annual award for the High Scoring Team in the Sectional-National Junior Smallbore Rifle Championships.

Match Conditions:

- 1942 Ten shots each position; prone, kneeling and standing.
- 1946 Ten shots prone and standing at 50 feet.
- 1957 Ten shots each position; prone, standing, sitting and kneeling per shooter in team match at 50 feet, metallic sights, A-17 target.
