

JOHN WALLACE GILLIES MEMORIAL TROPHY

The John Wallace Gillies Memorial Trophy was established in 1927 in memory of John Wallace Gillies, founder and driving force of the Roosevelt Rifle Club of Brooklyn, NY, during its early years. The trophy was retired from annual competition by the Roosevelt Rifle Club in 1963.

The trophy was donated to the NRA by Roosevelt Rifle Club in 1981 for annual competition in Smallbore Rifle. It is given annually to the National Indoor NRA 3-Position Champion.

The original firing conditions were: 40 shots, metallic sights, prone at 50 and 100 yards Dewar Course.

Some of the winners from the Roosevelt Rifle Club are: George Sheldon, Jerome Hiborn, George Sittler, Charles Johnson, Robert Nisbet, Eric Johnson, William Woodring, Russell Lambert, J.X. Lippencott, William Schweltzer, Audrey Bockmann, John Borokhovich, John Holle, Charles Eckles, Joseph Halm, Roy Oster, Loren Samsel, Sr., Ransford Triggs, Eric Sundstrom, Walter Tomsen and Samuel Tekuisky.

Mr Telusky, the Secretary/Treasurer of the Roosevelt Rifle Club since 1940, was the most instrumental in transferring the Trophy for the NRA National Competition.
