LT. FRANCIS J. MCGEE TROPHY

The Lt. Francis J. McGee Trophy is a large bronze bust mounted on a wooden base. It was presented by John M. Schooley and donated by Olin Corporation-Winchester Group. It is given to the winner of the Individual Service Pistol Championship Aggregate at the NRA National Police Shooting Championships.

Match Conditions:

1984 This is an aggregate of the following matches: Revolver Distinguished Match Service Revolver Match

Off-Duty Revolver Match

1995 Off-duty Revolver Match now consists of a 48 round course. Six shot strings instead of five.

1998 The Individual Service Pistol Aggregate is now comprised of the following matches: Service Revolver Championship, Stock Semi-Automatic Pistol Championship and the Off-Duty Revolver Championship.

1999 The time limit in stage 3 of both the Off-Duty and Service Revolver courses of fire has been changed to 20 seconds (was at 25 seconds).

The time limit for the Stock Semi-Automatic Pistol course of fire was increased to 90 seconds in stage 4 (was 60 seconds).

2003 The course of fire was changed to reflect two matches instead of the three matches formerly considered.
