

U.S. BORDER PATROL TROPHY

BILL JORDAN COMMEMORATIVE “FREEDOMS DEFENDER” TROPHY

The U.S. Border Patrol Trophy entitled “FREEDOMS DEFENDER”, the Bill Jordan commemorative, National Border Patrol Trophy, is a bronze statuette about one-third life size. The statuette depicts a Border Patrol Agent in Official Uniform from about the 1950's. This includes Campaign Hat, Sam Brown Belt with shoulder strap, Jordan style holster with loop cartridge carriers and a Winchester Model 97 riot shotgun. Several individuals were instrumental in the groundwork for this trophy, to name a few: current and former Border Patrol Officers, Harlon Carter, Bill Jordan, Bill Hilden, Tom Gaines and Greg Whipple. This trophy was sculpted by Greg Whipple and donated by the U.S. Border Patrol to be presented to the Grand Aggregate Winner at the NRA National Police Shooting Championships.

Match Conditions: Original - National Police Shooting Championships Grand Aggregate Match 21 Winner - Aggregate of the Open Class Revolver Championship, Open Class Semi-Automatic Pistol Championship, Distinguished Revolver & Distinguished Semi-Automatic Pistol Championship, Stock Service Service Revolver Championship, Off Duty Revolver Championship, Match; Shotgun Championship, and Stock Service Semi-Automatic Pistol Championship. Changed in 2015 and then 2016 by actions of the Law Enforcement Assistance Committee to Winner of Match 22, Grand Open Class Division 3000 Aggregate.
