

ALICE D. MOLT TROPHY

The Alice D. Molt Trophy is a sterling loving cup presented to the NRA in 1966 by Fred Molt in memory of his wife. Mrs. Molt was a well know high power and smallbore rifle competitor who fired in many tournaments in Albany, NY, Chicago, IL, and Asheville NC areas. She was Secretary of the North Carolina R&P Association for many years. The trophy was awarded annually to the high scoring Girl in the NRA Sectional-National Indoor Championships. In 1981 it was changed to being awarded annually to the high scoring Junior in the NRA Sectional-National Indoor 3-Position Championships.

Match Conditions:

- 1966 An aggregate of 10 shots in each position; prone, standing, sitting and kneeling, 50 feet with metallic sights on the A-17 target.
- 1977 Withdrawn from Competition
- 1981 An aggregate of 20 shots in each position: prone, standing and kneeling; 50 feet with metallic sights on the A-36 target.
