

SEA GIRL TROPHY VASE

The Sea Girl Trophy Vase was presented to the NRA by the New Jersey State Rifle Association in 1911. Sea Girt, NJ became the site of the NRA National Matches in 1899, after those matches were held at Creedmoore. The last Championships held at Sea Girt were in 1906 and the following year, Camp Perry, OH. They became the home of the National Matches.

Match Conditions:

1981 20 shots in each of the following positions; prone, sitting, kneeling and standing with any sights at 50 feet on the A-17 target. Awarded annually to the High Woman competitor.
