

CRESCENT CUP

The Crescent Cup is a silver loving cup donated to the NRA in 1919 by the Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, N.Y., to commemorate the building of the Navy Rifle Range at Caldwell, N.J. The trophy was presented for award to the high-scoring competitor from the U.S. Navy in the President's Match.

Match Conditions:

- 1919 The high-scoring competitor from the U.S. Navy in the President's Match fired during the National Matches.
- 1967 Changed to new target.
- 1978 The high-scoring competitor in a match consisting of 20 shots, slow fire, standing at 200 yards, at the National Matches.
