

DICK DANIK MEMORIAL TROPHY

This trophy was presented to the NRA by friends of Dick Danik.

Dick Danik was a frequent visitor to the U.S. and Camp Perry, where he competed in Smallbore Rifle Prone. Born in Poland prior to WWII, he found a home in England after the war. He was educated in England and became a professor of Slavic languages at Trinity College in Ireland.

The trophy is a 13 inch high polished pewter claret pitcher, mounted on a 4 inch base with a pewter engraving band. The trophy will be awarded to the High Visitor in the NRA National Outdoor Smallbore Rifle Conventional Prone Championship.

Match Conditions:
