

FRANK PARSONS MEMORIAL TROPHY

The Frank Parsons Memorial Trophy is a covered sterling silver Bowl, hand chased in Louis XV design. It was presented to the NRA from the estate of Frank T. Parsons, Jr., in 1959.

The Parsons Memorial Trophy is awarded to the National Smallbore Rifle Conventional Position Champion.

Match Conditions:

- 1959 An aggregate of 10 shots in each position; prone, standing, sitting and kneeling; 50 yards and 50 meters with both metallic and any sights (160 shots).
- 1961 The same course of fire with all matches at 50 yards.
- 1966 An aggregate of 20 shots in each position; prone, standing, sitting and kneeling; 50 yards with metallic and any sights (320 shots)
- 1968 Same course of fire except 10 shots in each position.
- 1969 Same course of fire except 20 shots in each position.
- 1978 An aggregate of 40 shots in each of three positions; prone, kneeling and standing; 50 meters with both metallic and any sights (240 shots).
- 2008 Target changed to the NRA A-23 target.
