

COLT TROPHY

Match #123

TRO-006

The Colt Trophy was presented to the NRA in 1927 by the Colt Patent Firearms Manufacturing Company. This trophy was given permanently to the high individual police office in the 1947 National Open Revolver Team Match. No Colt Trophy was offered in competition for the years 1948-50. In 1952 a new Colt Trophy was donated to the NRA by the Colt Company. This Second Colt Trophy was awarded permanently to the U.S. Border Patrol in 1958. The third Colt Trophy, the one shown, was donated to the NRA in 1959 and is awarded to the winning four-person team in the NRA National Pistol Championships.
